The Army Benevolent Fund

41 QUEEN'S GATE, SOUTH KENSINGTON,
LONDON, SW7 5HR

(Registered under the War Charities Act 1940 and the Charities Act 1960)

PATRON:

HER MAJESTY THE QUEEN

President:

General Sir ROBERT FORD, G.C.B., C.B.E.

The ARMY BENEVOLENT FUND is the Army's central Charity. Its aim is to give help where State assistance is either inapplicable or inadequate. Any man or woman who is serving or who has served in the British Army and their Families are eligible. Help is given either to individuals through Corps and Regimental Associations or by supporting national charities which provide specialised forms of help for soldiers, ex-soldiers and their dependants. Disbursements in general relief work are now in excess of £2½ million annually.

PLEASE HELP US TO HELP THEM—EITHER BY A DONATION OR A COVENANT, OR BY A BEQUEST IN YOUR WILL.

The Royal Star & Garter Home for Disabled Sailors, Soldiers & Airmen

Richmond, Surrey TW10 6RR

(Registered Charity No. 210119 & 286781)

Patron: Her Majesty the Queen

President: H.R.H. Princess Alexandra
the Hon. Lady Ogilvy, G.C.V.O.

The Home, an independent registered charity founded in 1916, stands on top of Richmond Hill overlooking the Thames. Here up to 200 disabled ex-servicemen and women of all ranks from all parts of the country are provided with a true home and the best possible medical and nursing care.

Initially Residents were all war casualties, but today those with acute or chronic disabilities sustained in service or since return to civilian life can be admitted. Admission can also be for short term in the excellent rehabilitation unit which includes physiotherapy, hydrotherapy, speech and occupational therapy.

The Home urgently needs funds for renewal of equipment and modernisation. Our income from donations and legacies has been insufficient to meet annual running costs let alone finance the renewal of worn-out equipment. Please help us to continue this good work either by donation, or a covenant, or by a bequest in your will. All donations will be gratefully received by the Appeals Director, The Royal Star and Garter Home, Richmond, Surrey TW10 6RR. Telephone: 081-940 3314.

Registered Charity No. 209753

THE OBJECT OF THE SOCIETY is to help, when in any kind of need, men and women of the Navy, Army and Air Force during their service and after their discharge.

General Welfare Work In co-operation with SSAFA the Society maintains a countrywide network of Voluntary Workers who provide a quick line of communication between the man or woman in need and the resources available, both from the Society's own funds and from Service and Regimental Associations. They receive applications direct or through Social Services and other departments, and investigate cases notified to them by the Ministry of Defence, Regimental Associations, Old Comrades Associations and Service Benevolent Funds, for whom they act as almoners. They also help in problems of employment, housing, understanding entitlement to DSS benefits, etc.

Homes and Cottages The Society maintains retirement homes for single and widowed ex-servicemen at Knaphill, Surrey and St. Vincents, Ryde, Isle of Wight, which also have facilities for men requiring convalescence to make a short stay. The Society also maintains 59 cottage homes for ex-servicemen and their wives, of which 35 are purpose built for the severely disabled. Disabled ex-service women are equally considered for the latter. More of these specially designed homes are planned as funds allow.

A purpose-built holiday complex for the disabled and their carers was completed early 1990.

The Lord Roberts Workshops There are now two factories, Edinburgh and Dundee, where disabled ex-service men are trained and employed.

WIDOWERS' FUNDPresident:* The Adjutant General

The Army Officers' Widows' and Widowers' Fund is a scheme under which a sum of money is provided for the immediate needs of the spouses and children of subscribers who die whilst members of the Fund—irrespective of cause or place of death.

The subscription is £6 per annum for serving officers, and £12 per annum for retired officers retaining their Regular Army Commission and employed in an appointment normally reserved for serving or retired officers of the Regular Army. The benefit is currently £6,250, taxfree.

With certain exceptions the scheme is open to all male and female officers of the Regular Army (including retired regular officers employed under the Retired Officer Scheme) who have spouses or dependent children. Full details are contained in current AGA's or can be obtained from:—

The Foundation (formerly based at Newquay) has since 1839 looked after children of all ranks in the Armed Services. Its short stay home is now established in a modern house to meet the immediate temporary need that arises when a family crisis occurs, such as injury to the father serving abroad, sudden departure of the mother to join him, and lack of relatives or friends to care for the children. The problem is met AT ONCE, at any hour of day or night, and the children are cared for, placed in schools and by arrangement given whatever special instruction, treatment or maintenance they need for up to 3 months, while family affairs are settled.

The House is run as a family home, not as an Institution, and the Mother-in-charge has long experience in child care. It is supported by voluntary contributions and by a modest scale of payments by the parents. Financial help can sometimes be given or lent by the Foundation.

Urgent and emergency inquiries should be made by telephone as above. Routine correspondence should be addressed to the Comptroller, Alexandra Foundation.

Grants, covenants, donations and legacies are especially valuable to the Foundation as a Charity under current law, and an outline of the tax advantages to the donor or his estate may be obtained from the Comptroller by interested parties.

The subscription is £6 per annum for single serving officers, and £12 per annum for single Retired Officers retaining their Regular Army Commission and employed in an appointment normally reserved for serving or retired officers of the Regular Army. THE EX-SERVICES MENTAL WELFARE SOCIETY

The Ex-Services Mental Welfare Society, which has been established for over 60 years, is the only voluntary organisation which exists to assist men and women who have become mentally disabled due to service in the Armed Forces or the Merchant Navy.

They have two treatment centres where patients are cared for in the first instance under qualified staff and an assessment is made of their ability to take their place in Society.

The Society's Welfare Officers visit people in their own homes and, where required, assistance is given. Visits are also paid to about 11,000 ex-Servicemen in Mental Hospitals.

The Society has a Veterans Home for the more elderly to pass their latter days in peace, and a hostel for the homeless who are unable to take their place in the community.

The people who seek the Society's help are not only victims of the two World Wars, but also of the many continuing campaigns since, which with their guerilla tactics and street fighting, are equally likely to be the cause of mental breakdown and damage.

This work, which is unique, requires about £800,000 a year by voluntary contributions, and too often those who are serving (or have served) in the Armed Forces do not know of the Society's existence. Many who might benefit by its work are therefore missed and, equally, some who would like to contribute have no chance to do so.

Enquiries about the Society's work, or offers of help should be made to the General Secretary, Ex-Services Mental Welfare Society, Broadway House, The Broadway, Wimbledon, SW19 1RL.
